New Warning Notes Sent to Reds by Big 3

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, Britain and France today gave the Soviet Union a new warning "in the most solemn terms" against any interference with Allied flights in the air corridors between West Germany and West Berlin.

The Western powers told the Kremlin any change in the air transport situation "will be the result of aggressive action against established rights by the Soviet government and the East German regime."

The Allied notes were delivered in Moscow this morning. They rejected the Soviet contention that the United States, Britain and France do not have unrestricted right of air transport in and out of West Berlin.

The notes, about 1,500 words long, were described as identical. "Rights with respect to air access to Berlin," the Soviet Union was told, "derive from precisely the same source as do the rights of the U.S.S.R. in East Germany and East Berlin; namely, the joint military defeat of the German Reich and the joint assumption of supreme authority over Germany."

"These rights are confirmed by the circumstances under which the four powers entered Germany by their subsequent discussions and agreements, and by open and established practice over a period of 15 years."

The form of the dispute as developed in a series of exchanges between Moscow and the Western capitals in recent weeks is legalistic. But U.S. officials fear that it foreshadows future Communist moves to try to impose limits on use of the Berlin air corridors.

Washington officials say the Western powers are fully determined not to permit any interference with the Berlin air traffic even if the Soviet Union makes a separate peace treaty with East Germany.

Basic U.S. policy was laid down in a White House statement Aug. 24 responding to an earlier Soviet attack on Western use of the flight lanes.

The White House declared that any interference with Allied access to West Berlin would be considered an aggressive act for which the Soviet government would be held responsible. It also rejected Moscow's charges that troublemakers were being flown into West Berlin.

The air corridors have been in operation since the end of World War II. Commercial flights now average about 36,000 a year in and out of West Berlin. The flights originate in West Germany or West Berlin beyond the control of East German officials.

Counties Seek Time for Assessments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eleven school districts have asked the state Board of Education to waive a financial penalty assessed under a 1961 teacher salary act, Education Commissioner Arch Ford said Thursday.

The board will consider at a meeting here Sunday and Monday the requests of Clinton, Tucker, Leachville, Stephens, Hughes, Mineral Springs, Monticello, Rector, Greenway (Clay County), Thornton and Dixie (Craighead County).

Act 231 of 1961 provides that if school districts spend a lesser percentage of local funds for teacher pay in a given year than they did in the previous year, the Education Department shall withhold from state aid the amount of the difference.

Some can't comply because of declining local revenues. Others have hired more teachers on the same or slightly increased revenues.

Welfare Chief Asks Why Roll Cut by 17,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Floyd Irby, Mississippi County welfare director who cut 17,000 persons off surplus commodity rolls this week, has been called to Little Rock to explain his action to the state Welfare Department next week.

Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said Thursday he would have no dispute with Irby if he had restricted commodity distribution to persons on welfare rolls. Adams said he is concerned about 4,000 persons left on the commodity rolls who are not on the welfare rolls.

One-third of the country's population was drawing commodities, Irby cut the list from 27,000 to 10,000. He said he acted because cotton farmers were having trouble getting field hands because potential workers were all living off surplus commodities.

"It's normal to reduce commodity rolls in cotton counties this time of year," Adams said. "We want to know how he (Irby) decided who would go and who would be kept."

Adams said several counties don't give commodities to persons who aren't on welfare. And many farming counties normally reduce commodity rolls to prevent a shortage of farm labor.

The statewide total has declined from 317,000 in March to 210,000 as of Sept. 1.

Each person on commodity gets 34 pounds of food, including pork, gravy, flour, rice, beans, dried milk, peanut butter, lard and butter. Adams said a careful housewife in a family of five probably could provide an adequate diet from commodities her family receives.

Surplus commodity eligibility requirements were tightened Sept. 1 to give counties a cutoff guideline.

The new regulation sets maximum earnings of $400 for a single person and $1,500 for a family. Until Sept. 1, a single person could earn up to $800 and a family $1,500 plus $300 for each child. Irby is an employee of the Welfare Department.

Adams said he was puzzled at the wide publicity given Irby's action. "Last year Mississippi County cut from 19,330 to 11,035 at this same time of year and there wasn't a word said about it," he said.

"There's nothing unusual (this year) except the number of people involved."

4-H Fun Night Tonight at 7:30

Fun Night by the County 4-H Clubs will be held at 7:30 tonight at Hope City Hall. This is a countywide recreation activity with many acts, stunts and games. Betty Duncan, HD Agent and Calvin Caldwell, County Agent, and adult leaders will have charge of the program.

Teachers to Meet on September 12

Hempstead County teachers will hold their first meeting of the year, Tuesday, Sept. 12 at 7:30 at Junior High School in Hope. Teacher retirement problems will be discussed.

Joe Hudson, State Department of Education, will explain the new retirement laws and Otis Blackwood will discuss social security. Teachers will vote on which type of retirement plan they want on September 20.

Two-Time Winner May Not Watch

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Frederick Stanton Townley may or may not watch the finale of the Miss America contest on television Saturday night.

For her it holds neither the thrill of novelty nor the pleasure of remembrance.

As Mary Catherine Campbell she was Miss America in both 1922 and 1923, the contest's only two-time winner.

But, to Mrs. Townley, still a good looking woman after years of several serious illnesses, that was a different time, a different country.

"None of it seems real. In Atlantic City they have a big picture of all of us on a pier, and I've stood there and looked up at the creature that was I and I think, 'She can't have ever had anything to do with me.'"

In a rare burst of reminiscence Mrs. Townley was discussing the contest over lunch.

"I like to sink into the background. I've been that way from the beginning."

The beginning was in Columbus, Ohio, where she was a straight-A high school girl, the only daughter of a certified public accountant. A beau entered her picture in the local contest and she became Miss Ohio.

Her mother accompanied her to Atlantic City "to guard me" and a Columbus Dispatch reporter, Mike Fanning, went along too.

Mary Catherine was 15 on May 9. "But since you were supposed to be 16, I was 16. I guess they won't make me give the Mermaid back now."

The Mermaid is a statue, real gold over bronze, that she said measures something less than a yard. It's now in the basement of their Manhattan home, but Mrs. Townley thinks a Columbus museum ought to have it. "It really belongs to the city. I'd be glad to give it up."

After the contests, movie and stage offers rolled in. Her mother rejected a Flo Ziegfeld bid, allowed her to sing a little while on the Keith Circuit. "Sing? You couldn't hear me past the third row."

She returned home, studied at Ohio State and Ohio Wesleyan, cared for her mother, then an invalid, and in 1929, won a round-the-world trip selling tickets for the Ohio Exposition. In Ceylon she met the brother of her future husband who performed introductions.

"We were married in 1933 and I still think he's wonderful. I was very fortunate to get him."

He's a salesman for DuPont, and they have no children.

Mrs. Vola Reed, 55, Dies at McNab

Mrs. Vola Reed, 55, died suddenly at her home at McNab. She is survived by her husband, Price Reed of McNab; a son, James Clark Reed of Ft. Worth; three daughters, Mrs. Hazel Copeland, Texarkana, Mrs. Betty Jo Foreman, Lubbock and Mrs. Sadie Ray of Indiana; two brothers, Henry King, Texarkana and Donnan King, Denton, Ark.; two sisters, Mrs. Magell Reed of Okay and Mrs. Delmar Gathright of Saratoga.

Funeral arrangements are in complete and will be announced by Herndon - Cornelius.

AIDC Budget Is $504,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Industrial Development Commission today will consider a $504,000 operating budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1962. About two-thirds will go to pay for advertising, office and travel expenses. The remainder will pay

Lawmakers Shocked at Army, Paar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators today voiced shock, dismay and condemnation over the use of U.S. soldiers and arms in Berlin as a backdrop Thursday for the Jack Paar television show.

A much larger force than usual showed up at the border crossing point between East and West Berlin as the Paar show was taped for showing next week.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., the majority leader, led a round of denunciations, asserting that what is happening in war-threatened Berlin is a world tragedy and "not a TV spectacle."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., assistant majority leader, declared that this sort of thing "is intolerable and should not be done." He said Soviet Premier Khrushchev can use "this kind of incident" for propaganda around the world "and beat us over the head with it."

"I was thoroughly shocked when I read this incident in the morning papers," said Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa. The senators spoke after Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense, ordered an investigation into the border incident. The Washington Evening Star reported the investigation was ordered with approval of the White House.

"If the newspaper reports are accurate, it was a disgraceful episode," Sylvester said. "If Army officers were responsible, they showed very poor judgment."

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., said the use of armed troops for such an occasion might lead to "a shooting scene." Saltonstall said it was incomprehensible that U.S. officials could lend themselves to such a purpose.

Old Line Is Defeated in N. York Vote

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP) — A smashing victory by Mayor Robert F. Wagner on an "anti-bossism" platform today wrecked the city's old line Democratic organization, led by Tammany Hall Chief Carmine G. DeSapio.

Wagner, backed by insurgents, defeated the organization candidate, State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, in a record outpouring of voters for a Democratic primary. The final vote was 451,458 to 291,672. The total vote of 743,130 bettered the previous Democratic primary mark of 718,000 set in 1937.

Wagner will face State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, unopposed for the Republican nomination, in the Nov. 7 general election.

Other insurgents won sufficient district leadership fights to have a good chance of control of Tammany, the Manhattan Democratic organization.

To top it off, DeSapio lost his own district leadership in Greenwich Village to James S. Lanigan, a Harvard-educated lawyer.

That in itself sent DeSapio into political eclipse because the New York County, or Tammany, leader is chosen only from among district leaders.

Wagner had the support of all the organization leaders in winning the mayoralty in 1953 and 1957, but split with them this year in favor of the insurgents.

Wagner also broke with City Council President Abe Stark and County Deputy Mayor Paul R. Scervano as his running mate for that post; Scervano and Budget Director Abraham Benne, Wagner's choice for comptroller, also won nomination.

Stark sought the Democratic nomination for Brooklyn borough president and won easily. Lawrence E. Gerosa, the present city comptroller whom Wagner also dropped, is running for mayor in November as an independent Democrat.

The insurgent forces backing Wagner were headed by former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

State Cotton Crop Increased 60,000 Bales

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Agriculture Department today increased by 60,000 bales an earlier prediction of the size of Arkansas' 1961 cotton crop.

In its first forecast on Aug. 8, the department estimated the state's crop at 1,280,000 bales. Today's estimate was for 1,340,000 bales.

The new figure also is slightly over last year's yield of 1,339,000 bales. The expected average yield per acre was put at 475 pounds, compared to 453 pounds estimated last month and 465 pounds produced last year.

Agricultural Statistician Miles McPeck said that although the crop got off to a bad start because of unfavorable weather conditions, it had made better than average progress since mid-July.

Arkansas growers planted 1,355,000 acres to cotton this year, compared to 1,320,000 acres in 1960.

This year's estimated yield per acre and expected production, respectively from nearby states include:

Tennessee 535 pounds per acre and production 580,000 bales; Mississippi 477 1,590,000; Missouri 492 and 400,000; Louisiana 458 and 515,000; Oklahoma 308 and 440,000; Texas 337 and 4,600,000.

Miss Ark. Wins Swim Suit Division

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Blondes are continuing to lead their brunette and red-haired competitors in the Miss America Pageant with Miss Utah and Miss Arkansas the winners in the second round of preliminary competition.

Carolyn Lasater, Miss Utah, won the talent contest Thursday night with a pantomime dance. She wore a dress which she designed, that converts from a nightgown to a business dress to an evening gown.

Miss Arkansas, Frances Jane Anderson, caught the judges' nods in the swimsuit contest as she strolled down the 120-foot runway before an audience of 7,157.

Boat girls are 19, they're listed as 5 feet 9 inches tall, and they are blondes. (Miss Anderson said she's really 5-4 1/2.)

River Work Bids Are Received

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — South-east Construction Co., Inc., of Pine Bluff Thursday submitted an apparent low bid of $374,350 on an extension of the Cummins Bend revetment, a bank stabilization project on the Arkansas River.

Army Engineers opened bids on the project and announced plans for a larger one. Both are in Lincoln County.

Bids will be opened Oct. 11 on construction of a cut-off channel to eliminate a bend where the Little Bayou flows into the River. Estimated cost is $1 million.

Ready to Talk Business, Says Khrushchev

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev said today he was ready for "businesslike talks" with President Kennedy on urgent world problems.

At a friendship meeting for Indian Prime Minister Nehru he went on to denounce President Kennedy's decision to resume nuclear testing, and declared "mankind is on the brink of another military tragedy."

"Aggressive forces want to plunge the world into another war," he said. "As a pretext for this they are using the question of the peace treaty with Germany."

"Our aim is to put out the remaining fires of war by concluding a peace treaty with Germany. All sober-thinking people realize that on the question of the peace treaty one must proceed from the fact of existence of two German states."

He warned that the Soviet Union "has enough strength to give a destructive blow to any aggressor."

Khrushchev said that the most vital item to be taken up was the conclusion of a German peace treaty.

He warned President Kennedy not to use negotiations to delay signing a treaty and again said: "If the Western powers do not sign, the treaty will be signed between the German Democratic Republic and such other states as wish to do so."

Khrushchev said that "if the Western power are ready for businesslike talks" on the German problem, "the Soviet government welcomes talks which would result in the conclusion of a peace treaty."

"It is impossible," he asserted, "to postpone the German settlement any longer."

"The peoples will not forgive us for any more postponements." Speaking earlier at the meeting in the Kremlin, Nehru called "on the great powers who hold the key to war and peace to remove the threat of war and lead the world to peace."

Nehru, on a three-day official visit to the Soviet Union, came from the conference of nonaligned nations in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, which urged talks between the U.S.S.R. and the United States.

The conference, Nehru said, "expressed the minds of hundreds of millions of people. Every effort must be made to settle these problems. Only talks can lead to fruitful results."

"Today we face the last possibility. A wrong step could wipe out the future for mankind."

Nehru said that if the danger of war could be removed in talks between the two major powers, "the way would be opened toward examining the problem of disarmament."

"We call for the discontinuation of nuclear tests. Whatever the military considerations for these tests they increase the danger of mankind."

Gulf Areas in Four States Set for 'Carla'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Carla's outer gales spun close to Louisiana shores today and her 11-mile-an-hour fury threatened residents along at least 5 miles of coastline.

Residents of islands and low coastal areas subject to flooding by high tides were warned to be prepared for evacuation before escape routes are closed by rising waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

A curve to a more northwesterly course during the night brought Texas into the danger zone and forecasters considered extending the hurricane watch to the Lone Star State. The coastline from the Louisiana-Texas border across Mississippi and Alabama and eastward to Apalachicola, Fla., already had been placed on watch.

The hurricane watch is expected to give way to full hurricane warnings tonight as gale force winds reach the coast.

A 9 a.m. bulletin located Carla about 40 miles south-southeast of the mouth of the Mississippi River. She was moving between northwest and north-northwest at about 10 miles an hour.

Highest winds were estimated at about 110 miles per hour near the center and Carla was moving between northwest and north-northwest at 10 miles per hour. "Winds will gradually increase along the northern Gulf Coast and will reach gale force in a few squalls tonight," the Weather Bureau said.

The weather map was smudged with two other storms—Hurricane Betsy, spinning north in the Atlantic 700 miles southeast of Cape Cod, Mass., and Tropical Storm Delbia, 650 miles west of the Cape Verde islands off the West African Coast.

Betsy offered no threat to the U.S. mainland and Delbia was too far away to be scouted by reconnaissance aircraft.

But Carla was an immediate threat to offshore oil operations in the Gulf of Mexico and to cities and towns on the coast.

Just where it would move inland was still a guess, but forecasters said Carla would continue moving between northwest and north-northwest for the next 12 to 18 hours.

Carla smashed into Cuba's western Pinar del Rio Province Thursday flattening 70 buildings and injuring 10 persons. Flood waters spread over a wide area and winds and water caused extensive crop damage as the storm moved out of the Caribbean Sea where it was spawned last Sunday and swept into the Gulf of Mexico.

Louisiana Man Named at TB Meet

JOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Howard A. Buchner of New Orleans was named as president of the Southern Tubercular Society, meeting in conjunction with the Southern Tuberculosis Conference, here Thursday night.

Dr. Charles A. Le Maistre of Dallas, Tex., was named president-elect and Dr. Watts Webb of Jackson, Miss., was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Charles O. Finley, the new owner of the Kansas City Athletics, told the group Thursday that TB treatment has changed markedly since he had it. He told the 30 delegates from 13 Southern states that TB laid him flat on his back for three years, but now the length of treatment is shorter and patients are treated in an entirely different manner.

Car Hits Bridge Railing, Damaged

An auto driven by David Barwick went out of control and hit a bridge railing about 9:30 last night, east on Highway 67. The car was badly damaged, reported City Officer's Martin and Pedron. Riding with Barwick but unhurt were Leon Prince, Ronnie Smith, Richard Pharris and John White.

The trouble with toll roads and freeways is that there is no longer such a thing as a distant relative.

Matter of Fact

The needs of the body run a close second to the needs of the soul, judging by all-time best sellers. Of all the books published in the United States, more copies of the Bible have been printed than any other book. Running second in popularity is—you've guessed it—the cook book.

Pentecosts Must Vaccinate Children

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Children of members of the Pentecostal faith must submit to polio shots before they can attend public schools here.

Chancellor Sam W. Garrett Thursday upheld the school board's regulation requiring polio shots for all students before enrollment.

The parents of 12 children of the Pentecostal faith secured a restraining order last September, prohibiting the school board from ordering vaccination of the children.

They claimed their constitutional guarantee of freedom of religion was being violated.

Garrett dissolved the restraining order, and said the board's regulation was "reasonable."

The parents have 30 days to appeal. The children have been attending school and officials said they would be allowed to remain in class pending a possible appeal.

Nearly 14 million people live within a 300-mile radius of Little Rock.

Arkansan Named by Church Group

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The Rev. John Maury Allin, 40, a native of Helena, Ark., has been elected bishop coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Mississippi. Allin, who has been rector of All Saints College in Vicksburg, will assist Bishop Duncan M. Gray, head of the statewide diocese and eventually will succeed him.

He must be approved by the other dioceses in the church before his ordination and consecration. Ceremonies will be scheduled later.

Bishop Gray was hospitalized Wednesday with his third vascular spasm in three years, and his condition was serious.

The Rev. Mr. Allin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allin of Helena. He attended the Helena schools and the college and seminary of the University of the South at Sawanee, Tenn.

His first assignment as a clergyman was as a vicar of St. Peter's Mission at Conway, Ark. He was curate at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in New Orleans and rector of Grace Church at Monroe, La., before going to All Saints College.

A brother Richard, is in charge of the Little Rock Bureau of the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

He is expected to make a bid for the Manhattan leadership of the party.

DeSapio, a veteran political professional, appeared philosophical about his defeat.

He said the Democratic voters had made their decision "and, in the final analysis, they are the real bosses, and there is no alternative but to abide by their decision."

Refinance Plan by Florida Bros.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley Thursday approved a plan by which the receiver for Andrew and George Florida of Osceola may refinance some 7,280,000 in debts owed by the brothers.

Henley told attorneys to complete quickly their pre-trial work on the government's $11.7 million "tax claim" against the Floridas.

He said he would set the case for trial early in 1962 whether they were ready or not.

The refinancing plan will enable receiver Beverly J. Lambert Jr. to borrow money from the First National Bank of Little Rock in order to pay off notes held by the Union Planters National Bank of Memphis and Stephens Co., Inc., of Osceola.

For the time being, the $32,000 due Stephens Co., Inc., will be placed in escrow until the judge rules on the validity of the claim.

58 Slaughtered

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Darul Islam terrorists slaughtered 58 villagers in West Java near Bandung Wednesday, the Antara news agency reported.

The terrorists, who want to convert Indonesia into a militantly Moslem state, swept down on four villages, shooting indiscriminately, burning and looting. They razed 130 houses, looted food supplies and fled into the jungled mountains.

DOROTHY DIX

They Don't Want Grandma to Marry!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I live with a married son and his family who are as nice as nice can be. They took me in when my mother son and daughter in law began taking over me, my home and my money. I pulled the rug from under them by selling my home and moving in with the good son and his wife.

Three months ago I met a widower who has come to mean a lot in my life as, I believe, I do—or did in his, until my other daughter-in-law started some hateful gossip about me. Her husband, my ungrateful son, still owes me money and, should I die, they hope to get half of what I have. As a result of all these lies, I've not seen the widower for two weeks. He gives an excuse that his daughter and son-in-law are visiting him, and promises to call me this month. Shall I wait, or invite him over and explain things? —Broken-Hearted Mother.

Dear Broken-Hearted: Are you jumping to conclusions or is that spiteful daughter-in-law really at the bottom of the trouble? Make sure first. If true, invite the widower over and, in the presence of your good son and daughter-in-law, tell your story. If such is not the case, wait for him to phone you. The fact he promised to call you indicates that he really is involved with family matters.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Send for "Jandiced Souls."

She'll outgrow it.

Dear Helen: I've got a minor problem: I can't dance and go with a boy who practically lives to dance. We aren't madly in love but he's fun and I hate to lose him. Being a senior in high, not knowing how to dance is quite embarrassing. Can you help us — Two Left Feet.

Dear Two Left Feet: Like everything else in life, you learn by experience. Get out there and dance. Practice with everybody at home and school. Tune in a good dance band and dance, dance, dance, until the rhythm of the various steps is part of you. If your boy friend is a real fellow he'll help. Be honest with him.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Send for "Jandiced Souls."

Hurricane to Cause Tides Off Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Carla's punch rose to 100 miles an hour today as she moved into the Gulf of Mexico and the Weather Bureau forecast rising tides along the south Florida coast.

Small craft operators in the southeastern Gulf area were advised to move to safe harbors and vessels in the northeastern Gulf were warned to keep in close touch with the hurricane advisories.

Carla was centered about 90 miles west of Cape San Antonio, Cuba, and 340 miles southeast of Key West, Fla., at noon.

It had curved slightly northward and was moving on a course between north and north-northwest. Any additional curve would increase the threat to Florida.

Gales reached outward 275 miles to the north and east and 125 miles to the southwest of the eye. A further buildup of the storm's power was forecast.

Carla's far-flung winds pounded the Yucatan peninsula on one side and western Cuba on the other as she passed through the channel between the two countries. The storm was born in the Caribbean.

Tides of five to seven feet, heavy rains and winds of gale to possibly hurricane force had been forecast for the northeast tip of Yucatan and extreme western Cuba during the storm's 10-mile-an-hour passage through the channel.

Miss Mary Jean Sparks and Coleadus Edward Noyes of Fayetteville, were married in Otto Whittington Chapel of the Immanuel Baptist Church of Little Rock, at 3 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 3. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell Sparks of Little Rock, formerly of Hope, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edward Noyes of Abbott.

Dr. W. O. Vaughn Jr., pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar background of palms, wrought-iron tree candelabra and an arrangement of white gladioli. Miss Martha Lynn Outhout, organist, and Dr. Glen Burton, soloist, both members of the music department of the church, presented the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned on princess lines with a band of iridescent tulle set in to indicate a raised waistline. Side panels of the same fabric flamed out the length of the flaring skirt and the chapel train. The scoop neckline and the bracelet length sleeves were edged with embroidery. Her finger-tip veil fell from a pearl and sequin coronet. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom and white bridal gloves. She carried a white pearl-backed Bible topped with a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Alfred Dobbins of Houston formerly Miss Gaye Clifton of Hope and Camden, was the matron of honor and the bride's only attendant.

Dan Yowell of Fayetteville, served the groom as best man. Roy Lloyd of Fayetteville and Sam Godwin of Manfield were ushers. Miss Becky Griffin, Little Rock, presided at the guest book.

For travel the bride wore a small black and white checked transitional cotton frock with a cecillies and the orchid corsage matching jacket and black acrom from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip in Northwest Arkansas and Southern Missouri, the couple will be at home in Fayetteville, where the groom is affiliated with the Retail Credit Co. and the bride will attend the U of A, where she is a senior in Home Economics. Attending from Hope were Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Holt, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitman and Anna, Mr. and Mrs. Will Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Bates.

Tuesday Bridge Club Meets

A local Tuesday Bridge Club met with Mrs. Kelly Bryant on Sept. 5. The two tables of club members enjoyed the afternoon in a setting enhanced by celosia, daisies and other flowers in the shades of yellow, green and orange.

Winning prizes for high scores were Mrs. George Robinson and Mrs. Lyle Brown. During the meet coffee, cold drinks and snacks were served.

New Postoffice at Fayetteville

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Postoffice Department will open bids Nov. 8 for a new postoffice at Fayetteville, officials said Wednesday. The facility will be leased to the Postoffice Department for 20 years with renewal options for another 30 years.

denounced Browder as a "bourgeois reformist." The Communist Party's "political association" voted itself out of existence and once again became the American Communist Party.

Poster was named the new party boss - although Eugene Dennis who died last Jan. 31, became the real one and Browder was thrown out.

But Communist party members everywhere - except perhaps in Red China - had their greatest convulsion on Feb. 24, 1956 when Russian communism made the greatest and most sudden switch in its history.

On that day Nikita Khrushchev, now premier, denounced Stalin, who had died in 1953, as a monster and murderer with a list of crimes behind him big enough to shock the world. Khrushchev even suggested that Communist parties outside Russia might work out their own road to socialism.

All over the world - but particularly in this country - Communist party members beat their breasts and tried to understand what the new flip-flop meant. The American Communists, in the Daily

Gal 2 Marlow's World Today: Worker of June 7, 1956, confessed: "We were wholly ignorant that these crimes had been committed (although it was clear to practically everyone else that Stalin had been slaughtering people for years). Yet, there was reputable evidence had we but listened. . . . We were wrong, terribly wrong."

Some Communists - particularly in Poland and Hungary - thought maybe Khrushchev really meant to let them have a little more say-so on their own. He squelched that idea in a hurry by visiting Poland in 1956 and threatening force if the poles got frisky. They subsided in a hurry.

But it was in Hungary that he really showed he wasn't relaxing anything. He sent in Russian tanks to slaughter the Hungarian rebels. This bloody action again threw Communist party members outside Russia into a tizzy. It didn't last long. Everywhere now they are under rigid Moscow control.

In each flip-flop the Communist party in this country lost members. Most of them were probably basically "sentimentalists." The hard-core Communists stayed in the party whose low point was 7,500 members in 1930, whose high point was 80,000 in 1944 and whose membership now is about 10,000.

The new boss of the American party, Gus Hall, the successor of Dennis, has kept quiet recently, perhaps until he can digest the new Russian line on nuclear tests. Moscow says it must resume tests because of the Allies' threatening attitude.

This was all right with Stalin until 1945, with the war in Europe almost over, he decided, although this country didn't realize it at the time, to drop the "united front" cooperation with the West and begin the cold war.

There was a simple explanation for this. Hitler was crushed and Stalin didn't need Western help which might be an inconvenience in taking over Eastern Europe. But Browder didn't understand.

He was still living under the illusion that harmony with capitalism was what communism wanted. Stalin had so much contempt for the American Communist party he didn't even notify it directly that the line had changed.

He got a French Communist leader, Jacques Duclos, to do it in a letter he published in a Communist paper in Paris. Duclos ridiculed the absurd spectacle of American Communists cooperating with capitalism.

In this way the American party members got the word about the new flip-flop. In June 1945 they announced a new "Marxist" policy to bring to an end the "period of collaboration with the current political and economic setup of the United States."

Browder, on the rocks, denounced this as "bohemian anarchism." Foster, Stalin's hand-picked disciple of the new line,

SUMMER VACATION

by Janet Henry

We took him on a camping trip; Attended sports events; Spent five days on a pleasure ship (At fabulous expense); Arranged each weekend for his fun, With picnics, hikes, and such; But if you ask him what he's done, He'll tell you, 'Nothing much.'

THE STORY: A band of young lads, some of them home from college for the summer, have decided to take summer jobs in Wonderful. They realize the civic leaders plan to use them in other capacities, but they aren't supposed to know this.

Chap'er XVII

Riding point in his Thunderbird, with Horsecollar beside him, David Brown let the lads to the top of Wolf Creek Pass, on their way to Wonderful. Horsecollar had been snoozing for the last 30 miles but now he roused and his eyes gleamed with interest.

A photographer, complete with tripod, was taking scenic views near a huge rock at the edge of the highway. "There's a live one," orsecollar said. "He will do."

"Maybe he's got a bad heart," Hampton C. Worley II, who had beyond doubt the largest and best collection of colored slides of mountain scenery of anyone in Corn Land, Iowa, gave but scant attention to the fact that four cars had stopped near him.

All at once Worley had an audience. He gave them a quick glance and then a double take. Indian lads, what do you know? Some of them wore cattle men's hats, others baseball caps, Levis, cowboy boots and plaid shirts. Sort of a shy, native-looking group of young men.

"Taking pictures?" one asked. "Uh-huh," Worley said, and bent to his view finder again. Next winter when he was showing his slides to a captive audience, his mother and aunts and two friends who had come over to eat, he would say, "And while I was taking these, a group of young Indian boys, positively fascinating, stood there and watched me curiously. Of course I'm sure that they had seen a camera before."

Some moments later he became aware that the Indians were sniffing, apparently seeking one of their number.

"Bloody Wolf! Bloody Wolf!" Mildly intrigued, Worley turned from his camera. A tall Indian up the highway asked him a question, but Worley did not catch the words. "What did you say?"

"I asked if you saw anyone around when you stopped here," Worley shook his head. "No, I didn't."

The tall Indian seemed greatly worried. "Thank you," he turned away.

"Bloody Wolf!" The Indians were leaving the highway, scattering into the timber where melting snowbanks lay.

"He escaped last night from a car when we stopped here."

Maris Within 5 Homers of Ruth's Record

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roger Maris, an old hand at busting down barriers (he since crashed through a wooden fence chasing a fly ball), now is within five home runs of powering through to tie Babe Ruth's 34-year-old record of 60.

Maris hit No. 55, his second in two games, as the New York Yankees cracked the Cleveland Indians 7-3 Thursday night. Only three other challengers to Ruth's supreme 60 in 1927 ever have been this close—Jimmy Foxx, Hank Greenberg and Hack Wilson.

Fox got to 58 with the old Philadelphia A's in 1932. Greenberg also finished with 58, for Detroit in 1938. Wilson stopped at 56 with the Chicago Cubs when he set the National League record in 1930.

Maris, who startled Cleveland defenses with a drag bunt that brought in a run his first at-bat Thursday night, still is seven games ahead of the Babe's record pace. He has 14 games in which to break Ruth's mark within the limit of 154 team decisions set by Commissioner Ford Frick.

Teamate Mickey Mantle, his total still at 51, fell two games behind Ruth's pace when he failed to connect for the second straight game. But the Mick doubled home the tie-breaking run that gave the Yanks their eighth straight victory and a run-away, nine-game lead over Detroit.

The second place Tigers lost their seventh in a row, 8-4 at Boston, in an afternoon game. Third place Baltimore edged within 3½ games of Detroit by whipping Washington 6-3 in the only other AL game scheduled.

Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-5 in the lone NL game. Maris, whose solo homer came in the third inning on a 1-0 pitch by losing left-hander Dick Sigmund, shrugged off his earlier sacrifice of a swing for the bunt.

"I was up there to get the run in," he said. "That was my job."

Mantle's double put the Yanks back in the lead in a two-run sixth after the Indians had tied it in their sixth on Tito Francona's three-run homer off Ralph Terry.

The Yankee right-hander, now 13-2, retired the first 13 men he faced and finished with a five-hitter.

The win reduced the Yanks' magic number to 14. Any combination of New York victories and Detroit losses totaling 14 gives the Yankees another pennant.

The Tigers, a week ago just 1½ games behind New York, blew a 3-1 lead at Boston as their ace, Frank Lary (19-9) lost on his third try for victory No. 20. An error by Norm Cash and Frank Malzone's three-run homer put the Red Sox even in the third and Chuck Schilling's single put it away in the sixth for Bill Monbouquette (12-12).

Race Draws Five National Champions

ELKHART LAKE, Wis. (AP)—The Road America 500, one of the nation's top road races, will have five national champions in the field for the 1961 edition this Sunday.

The 500-mile grind is the finale event of a weekend of sports car racing on the winding, four-mile Road America paved course. The program opens Saturday with six races.

In just five years the 500 mile has become a major sports car event.

The speed record of 82.8 m.p.h. was posted in 1959 by Walt Hansgen of Westfield, N.J., and Eddie Crawford of Northfield, Ill.

Last year's race was won by Luke St. Clair of Zionville, Ind., and Dave Cousey of Carmel, Ind., in a Birdseye Maserati.

Cousey and Hansgen the only former champions sure to race this year. Hansgen will be driving with one of the five national champions, Augie Pabst of Milwaukee, the B-modified class kingpin.

The other champions are Roger Penske of Gladwin, Pa., Oliver Schmidt, Winnetka, Ill., and Duncan Black of Parkton, Md.

Agencies Frown on Insurance Rate Dip
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Insurance Commissioner Harvey G. Combs Wednesday heard the application of State Farm Fire and Casualty Co. to offer a low insurance rate to residents of suburban areas served by municipal fire departments.

The Arkansas Association of Insurance Agents argued against the proposal.

Combs didn't announce a decision, but indicated he didn't favor the application.

State Farm, whose home office is in Bloomington, Ill., once was granted a special suburban rate, but Combs set it aside after complaints from competing agents.

The applicant contended a suburban area, even though outside city limits, shouldn't be in the same classification as an entirely rural area without any fire protection.

Rice Average Is Measured
DERMOTT, Ark. (AP)—Representatives of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Wednesday measured the rice acreage on the farm of James Weir, who is resisting the crop allotment fixed by the federal authorities.

The ASC men said Weir wasn't present.

They said they measured the acreage at 246.3 acres, compared to the 10 Weir had been allotted.

Weir paid fines for overplanting his 1958 and 1959 rice crops and faces another fine for the 1960 crop.

Litigation is pending over the present crop in U.S. District Court at Little Rock.

Kittens Lash Prescott; Cats to Pine Bluff

By VINCE FOSTER
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Junior Bobkittens started the season off right last night by soundly whipping the Prescott Junior Wolves 18 to 0 at Hammons Stadium. A good crowd saw some hard knocking by the smaller Kittens as they took their 15th consecutive victory, with Jerry Burnett scoring all three TD's.

The last game lost by the juniors was in 1958.

Kicking and fumbles dominated the first quarter, but the Kittens finally started a drive from their own 35 yard line. Backs Burnett, Waller and Moses rolled off yardage from there to the 2, where 11B Jerry Burnett plunged over.

The attempted pass for the PAT was no good and the Kittens led at the half 6 to 0.

Prescott kicked off at the half and the Kittens began their drive at their own 25. Again they quickly moved to the 2 yard line and again Burnett scored. The try for the extra point was no good.

The Cubs could not make much yardage in the final quarter and punted to the Hope 24, where Kitten QB Buddy Jordan returned it to the Hope 47. This put the Kittens on the move once more, and a Jordan to Waller pass play set up Burnett's third TD of the night from the five yard stripe. The PAT failed and the score at the buzzer was Hope 18, Prescott 0.

Jerry Burnett looked very good as he picked up 90 yards for the Bobkittens, and he was followed by Jerry Waller with 41. Waller was a big surprise and was very impressive on offense and defense.

The FB Moses picked up 33 and Jordan made 30. Ball took 6 to round out the yardage. Louis Prather looked good on defense, as did Samuels and Guerin. Other starters included Beard, McMahon, Still, Willis and Sprague.

The Kittens outscored the Prescott team 210 to 36 and out passed them 29 yards to 0. Hope also led in first downs 12-3 Kittens Coach Mitchell was reported as "very thrilled."

Remember the Bobcats are playing at Pine Bluff tonight and the Kittens will be trying for No. 16 Sept. 21, when they meet Texarkana.
